President's Message

Many of our Probud members were at the Remembrance Day  Service on November 11th.

Thank you to Don Whalen, a retired member of the Canadian Forces, who laid a wreath on behalf of our club. It was an honour and an emotional moment to walk beside Don to lay the Probud wreath in remembrance of all the men and women who gave us the gift of freedom.

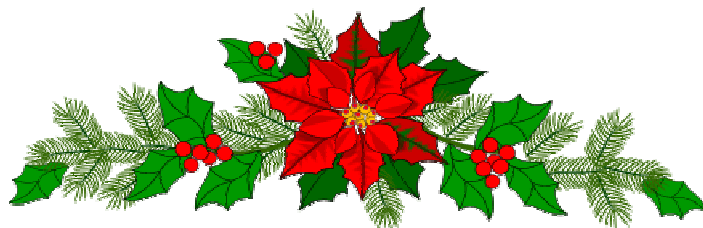

Congratulations to our curling team who took part in the Northumberland District Bonspiel. Pat and Denny DesCote, Joan Selwood and Alex Liddell not only had fun and exercise, but won some money for coming in second (just one point less than the winners). Well done!

Our club will celebrate the holiday season with our Dinner/Dance on December 13th. Come and enjoy with friends old and new. See you there!

The Management Team and myself wish you all a Merry Christmas and a safe, healthy and happy New Year.

Have a wonderful holiday season!

Celia Miles

The next Beacon will be issued for the first Probud Meeting in January.
