President's Message

November is described by some as "Le mois de mort". Certainly, the bare limbs and rustling leaves beneath grey skies give credence. We oldsters will not despair.

Brighton is now lit up for the holiday season. We will soon be greeting a white landscape - to shovel. And all those visiting grandchildren bringing good cheer - and helping to shovel.

Personally, I have pretty much stopped eating for now in anticipation of "festive overload", and hopefully winning big at a future weigh-in. Wanna bet?

Chris

The Probud Management Team
wish you a wonderful holiday season

There will be no Beacon printed for the month of December

PROGRAMME

Wednesday, November 25, 2009

Father Feeley from the Catholic Church will talk about his travels in different parts of the world.

Wednesday, December 9, 2009

The Sweet Adelines will entertain us with Christmas music and other songs.

This is our last meeting before Christmas.

Wednesday, January 13, 2010

Daryl Stogryn of Youth for Christ is making a second presentation. Many people have said they would like to have him back because they enjoyed him so much in August. We'll hear more about his travels and work with youth around the world.

Wednesday, January 27, 2010

Today we have a World War II Veteran, Mr. Art Sherwin, who played a role in The Great Escape - not the movie but "the real thing"! He wasn't one of those who escaped, but he helped dig the tunnel, kept watch and assisted in other ways with the escape. His story should be very interesting.

Sadly we report the recent and sudden death of Annette Mather, a fairly new member of Probus. Annette really enjoyed playing with the bid euchre group and going out with the single diners.
