President's Message

Greetings to all:

We have had an excellent start to our new season. The trip to the Herrongate Theatre was excellent, food in both the quality (and quantity) and the stage play, though timeless, was a delight. How many guessed the villain? The car rally was well organized but, unfortunately, not too well attended. No fault of the organizers.

We have much to look forward to. The social survey conducted by Patrick and Louise will be released to us next week and will probably include some surprises.

Local elections are upon us on Monday but I assume most of you have already cast your ballot. I hope our session with the two candidates for Mayor helped you decision.

Thanksgiving has come and gone and I hope everyone was able to join family or friends (or both) at this old but treasured custom.

Best regards to all and I look forward to seeing you next week.
Jack
