From the President's Perch

As I am filling in for Anja, I am also responsible for the president's message.

First, on behalf of the club, I extend our wishes to Anja on her surgery and ongoing recovery. We hope the surgery was a success and that your recovery is smooth.

To all the members have a happy Halloween.

Adrian Dubois will be representing our club at the Remembrance Day service and will be laying a wreath from our club. Thank you, Adrian.

As we have only 2 more meetings prior to our Christmas celebration, I need those who will be attending our celebration to pay at our first meeting in November. I am asking this as I will not be there for the second meeting in November. The cost is $10.00 per member and $15.00 per non-member.

From a month ago we have received some good news. We now have filled our vice presidents position. The Vice President's position will be shared by Gord McArthur and Bob McNutt.

Gord and Bob will cover the second meeting in November.

Louise, I thank you for the reminder of my responsibility for the president's note for our newsletter. I wish you good luck in your new function. You have started off on the right foot. Again thanks for the reminder.

In summing up my letter I would like to say;

May we think of each other while we are apart from each other.

Warm Regards

You're Past-President

Martin Blackshaw

October 7, 2015 Meeting

Judi Eakins introduced our speaker – Anja Hertle who loves to do Mosaic Art.

Anja is very passionate about creating three-dimensional art pieces by patiently assembling recycled material into colourful pictures.

Our Share the Wealth winner was Cathy Galt - $19.00.

October 21, 2015 Meeting

Judi Eakins made arrangements for us to visit the Alpaca Farm across the road from Salem Church, something that was enjoyed by all who attended.

It was very interesting to learn about the Alpacas and looking in their store to see the many items made from Alpaca yarn.

Amy Kung-Oliver (owner) with Shirley Ross

Thank you, Amy

Share the Wealth, unfortunately could not happen at the Alpaca Farm.

Upcoming PROBUS Events

November 4th meeting, our speaker will be Michael Gellman, the Artistic Director for the new Process Theatre, on King St., here in Colborne. He will be teaching us the ins and outs of acting.

November 18th's speaker is unknown at this time.

"Treasure today—Tomorrow might be too late"

With your help, I can produce a better News Letter.

Thank you all and have a GREAT day.
